Trained Animal Show.  The Hagenbeck trained animal show opened at Pratt and Illinois streets last night with a good crowd in attendance. In the main tent there were performances by trained elephants, lions and other animals. "Madame Flora" gave a thrilling performance with two great snakes and there was a spirited sparring match between a kangarco and a man. There was also work in the ring by a clown who had with him a dog and a monkey. In addition to the animal show there are several side attractions. One is "Chiquita." a demure little Cuban woman, twen- ty-sine years of age and twenty-six inches in height. She weighs eighteen pounds. In another tent is "White Wings," an Arabian horse whose mane and tall each measure fourteen feet.
One of the side show attractions is called "Gay Parce." A number of moving pictures are given on canvas. Police Sergeant Schwab visited "Gay Parce" and said last night he would report to the superintendent of police the character of one of the pictures given. He thought there was but one that could be objected to if any of them could be considered improper.

Having nothing else to do while waiting for the train, the Hoosiers, in the language of the German comedian, "kicked the stifyles Wall Paper. Low Tel. 3 on 2552. fening out of" the St. Paulines yesterday afternoon to the tune of 5 to 3, in an hour and three-quarters. Perhaps half a thousand of our best citizens, the bone and sinew of the Nation and all that sort of thing, sat about on the benches and ate petrified peanuts and wondered what Hoffmeister was doing on the only official score card and off the field. The ground was as slippery as a police court lawyer and falls therefrom were pretty well divided among the contesting players. Old man "Hot Stuff" was there and had his voice with him, as usual. Honest, now, if baseball were on every day in the season with no trips abroad to break the continuity, that man would be down with a case of nerves before the Fourth of July. The game itself was played with remarkable lack of real mean rudeness on both sides, the gang of Saints not jawing Mannassau more than > knows the Paulines will readily admit they Eddie Burke, leading comedian, was the first man up. Assisted by Hickey, Motz finshed him. Geler did better, singling to center. Following him was Glenalvin, grinning horribly a ghastly smile and flying out to McFarland, who threw the ball in from Millersville via Bob Allen before Geier could get back to first base. The perfect gentlemen from Minnesota earned a pair of tallies in the second on a three-base hit by Shugart after Lally and Isbell had hit safe. The Hoosiers scored one in the second, Flemng's hit maturing on Hickey's three-bagger. Another was taken in the third. With two out, McFarland singled, stole second and scored on Motz's hit. Three more runs came to the credit of Indianapolis in the seventh. Hickey got a trip pass. Kahoe yielded up his young life for the cause. Me lord, Glenalvin, threw the ball at empty space and let Newton reach Station A. Hogriever's three-bagger, driven away down beyond the club shed, brought both men in. Stewart flying to Lally brought in Hogriever. By grace of Ace Stewart, who temporarily reduced himself to a two-spot by fumbling McFarland's throw on Burke's two-bagger, the Saints made a third run in the ninth, Spies getting home on the play. BALTIMORE, June 13.-Baltimore and Brooklyn played a double header to-day and broke even. Six singles, a two-base hit, two passes to first and three errors in the seventh inning of the opening game gave the Orioles eight runs. Hughes was the steadier in the second trial. Four singles and a triple gave Baltimore what seemed a winning lead in the third inning, but Kitson was an easy mark and fielding errors behind him turned the tide of victory. Scores:
